

Lock Door of Ternaaien / LanayeFacts:

- Start of the project:

July 1991

- End of the project:

July 1991

- Exact location:

Quai de Caster

4600 Ternaaien

Belgium

- Name client:

Walloon Administration

- Contact person:

/

- Treated surface:

Complete upper and lower doors, both sides to a total of 2100 m²

- Applied products:

Humidur®

- Extra information:

The lock door of Lanaye is situated south of Maastricht (Netherlands) and is the connection between the Albert Canal and the River Maas.

The sluice of Lanaye has 2 separate doors of 55 meters length to 7,5 meters wide and a third lock door of 136 meters length to 16 meters width.

The Humidur coating has been inspected after almost 20 years and is in excellent condition.

Acotec nv

Different views on the lock doors of Lanaye

View on the sandblasted and coated lock door after dismantling